This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

- ☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

No objections from Planning Officer or Conservation Officer:

'Based on the information provided, and points raised by the Conservation Officer are considered, I am of the view that should a formal planning application be submitted for the proposed extension, then it would be likely that a favourable response could be provided.'

We have taken on board the Conservation Officers comments regarding the ratio of weatherboarding to the first floor, increasing the height of the brickwork by 3 courses to avoid a 'top heavy' appearance.

We have also proposed to replace the front door with a 4no. panelled door to improve the front elevation as suggested.

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
