We are submitting this statement to justify the proposed reconfiguration and redoing of the front pathway at our new site, as outlined in our planning permission application. The necessity for this alteration stems from both functional and aesthetic considerations that align with the overall design and accessibility goals of the site.

References to Plans and Drawings

The detailed plans and drawings for the site are provided in the “Emil Dale - Letchworth Grammar School Development” document. These documents illustrate the proposed changes, including the introduction of a new entry pathway that will better integrate with the surrounding landscape and existing architectural features. The proposed pathway is designed to ensure a more seamless transition from the entrance to the main building, enhancing the overall accessibility and visual appeal of the site. Specifically, the redesign of the pathway is crucial for the following reasons:

Improved Accessibility: The current pathway does not fully comply with accessibility standards, particularly for individuals with mobility challenges. The proposed pathway will feature a more gradual incline and smoother surfaces, ensuring it is wheelchair accessible and easy to navigate for all users.

Aesthetic Integration: As indicated in the site plans, the new pathway will be constructed using materials that match the existing structures, such as the sandstone walls and entry signage highlighted in our external changes section (Emil Dale - Letchworth Grammar School Development, p. 1-2)(Emil Dale - Presentatio...). This will create a cohesive visual identity for the site, reinforcing its historical character while incorporating modern design elements.

Safety Enhancements: The redesign also addresses safety concerns by introducing better lighting and clear demarcation of the pathway. This is essential for ensuring that the site is safe and navigable during both day and night.

Design and Access Statement

The redesign of the front pathway is a critical component of our broader strategy to enhance the site's accessibility and aesthetic appeal. The proposed changes align with the principles set out in our Design and Access Statement, which emphasises the need to respect the historical significance of the site while accommodating contemporary requirements. The use of materials such as sandstone, which is consistent with the existing entrance walls and signage, will maintain the site's architectural integrity while enhancing its functionality.

In conclusion, the proposed changes to the front pathway are justified by the need to improve accessibility, safety, and aesthetic coherence, in line with the overall design goals for the site. We trust that this statement, supported by the detailed plans and drawings submitted with our application, provides a clear rationale for the requested changes.

Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Find out more about biodiversity net gain, and access digital tools from our partners that can help determine if you are exempt, or produce the biodiversity metric information required.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 \(as amended\)) would apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

You can use our partner's free online tool to determine if you are exempt and to produce detailed reasons

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)

What best describes the size of your site?:

Over 25 square metres

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:

We believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)) would not apply to our project. Our development is below the threshold for the Biodiversity Net Gain requirement, and therefore, we believe we are exempt from the necessity to provide detailed biodiversity metric information. Despite this, we are committed to maintaining the ecological integrity of the site and will be replanting shrubs to support local biodiversity. However, given the scale and nature of our development, we do not believe that the Biodiversity Gain Condition is applicable in this instance.

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Retrospective planning permission

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:

We believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)) would not apply to our project. Our development is below the threshold for the Biodiversity Net Gain requirement, and therefore, we believe we are exempt from the necessity to provide detailed biodiversity metric information. Despite this, we are committed to maintaining the ecological integrity of the site and will be replanting shrubs to support local biodiversity. However, given the scale and nature of our development, we do not believe that the Biodiversity Gain Condition is applicable in this instance.

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.
