Applicant:

Mr Parm Basra

PARTICULARS OF DEVELOPMENT

Application:	24/02752/FP
Proposal:	Erection of one self-build detached 3-bed bungalow with associated parking and landscaping
Location:	10 St Katherines Close, Ickleford, Hitchin, Hertfordshire, SG5 3XS
Refused Plan Nos:	24072-01 24072-02 1234-03 24072-07 24072-04 24072-05 3D 24072-06 3D

PARTICULARS OF DECISION

In pursuance of its powers under the above Act and the associated Orders and Regulations, the Council hereby REFUSE the development proposed by you in your application received with sufficient particulars on 17 December 2024.

1. The proposed dwelling, by reason of its location and restricted plot size , would result in unacceptable back land development that is contrary and harmful to the distinctive spatial character of the area. As a result the development is contrary to the provisions of Policies SP9 and D1 of the Submission Local Plan 2011 - 2031 as it would not be sympathetic to the surrounding built environment and fails to improve the character and quality of the area and the way it functions.
2. The proposed development, by reason of the restricted plot size, the height and scale of the proposed dwelling and its close proximity to neighbouring properties , would give rise to an overbearing impact on and general loss of amenity to neighbouring occupiers to the detriment of their living conditions. The proposal would fail to provide and maintain an adequately high standard of environment resulting in an overdevelopment of the site contrary to the provisions of Policy D3 of the Submission Plan 2011 - 2031.

Proactive Statement:

Planning permission has been refused for this proposal for the clear reasons set out in this decision notice. The Council has not acted proactively through positive engagement with the applicant as in the Council's view the proposal is unacceptable in principle and the fundamental objections cannot be overcome through dialogue. Since no solutions can be found the Council has complied with the requirements of the Framework (paragraph 38) and in accordance with the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015.

NOTES

- 1 If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority (LPA) to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.

However, if an enforcement notice has been served for the same or very similar development the time limit is 28 days from the date of the LPA decision or 28 days from the date the enforcement notice was served.

Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/appeal-planning-decision>
If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning

Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based their decision on a direction given by him.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.

Purchase Notices

If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted.

In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
