A technical line drawing of a house elevation. The house has a gabled roof with a small decorative finial at the peak. The roof is shaded with diagonal lines. The main wall is covered in horizontal lines. A single, vertically oriented window is centered on the upper part of the wall. A horizontal line, possibly representing a railing or a different material, runs across the lower part of the wall. The house is shown on a flat ground line.
