

new slim-profile double-glazing in existing modified casement windows - window type A new slim-profile double-glazing in existing modified casement windows - window type A new slim-profile double-glazed timber casement windows in existing openings - window type C new lead-cladding to roof of new timber porch with double-glazed opening reinstated to match East elevation

new slim-profile double-glazed timber casement windows in existing openings - window type C

new triple-glazed casement windows in existing openings - window type H existing timber cladding to be retained and overhauled existing render to be made good on removal of former porch brick plinth exposed/reinstated either side of opening with red bricks of same age, dimensions and composition as existing, laid in matching bond in lime mortar (flush joints) new flush oak door in existing opening to be detailed as original front door (currently in use between the entrance lobby and the existing dining room) and with exposed original 3-centred timber arch and carved spandrel panels new triple-glazed timber-framed door in existing opening - window type H

NORTH ELEVATION AS PROPOSED

new slim-profile double-glazing in existing modified casement windows - window type A new triple-glazed flush rooflight existing clay roofing tiles to be removed and set aside for re-use, to be reinstated with new lead flashings and new tiles where required to match existing new triple-glazed 'slot' window with concealed framing part extension to existing roof in tiling to match existing window type F - details of new window in new opening to south elevation to match this window

new slim-profile double-glazing in existing modified casement windows - window type A new timber-framed double-glazed french doors in existing opening

new porch beyond

new vertical charred larch cladding location of air source heat pump within acoustic enclosure in charred larch to match elsewhere

WEST ELEVATION west extension AS PROPOSED

WEST ELEVATION east extension AS PROPOSED

Tillman Architects ©
E keith.tillman@me.com
84 Speedwell St London SE8 4AT

Title
North and West elevations
as proposed

Project
Refurbishment and Alterations to Old Manor Shaffenhoe End for
Phil and Cess Noblet

580
02 10
A

scale
1:50
@ A1

oct
24

Do not scale this drawing. The contractor is responsible for checking all dimensions. Any discrepancies shall be reported to the Architect.

