Dear Alison,
Thank you for your letter.
The permitted Development Loft conversion is currently under construction (dormer & roof lights).
It may well be substantially built prior to assessment of the remaining Housholder phase of the application - hence the inclusion in the Existing plans & Elevations (Rev A).
However in case this is not the case, Please also include the previous Existing plans and elevations - attached here. (Rev -).
If the Notation needs amending on the drawings please don't hesitate to let me know.
Kind regards
Sara
