NOTES

1. The certificate is issued solely for the purpose of Section 26H of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.

2. It certifies that the works specified taking place to the listed building/s described are lawful and therefore, are not liable to enforcement action under section 38 of the Act.

3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the works described and to the listed building/s specified and identified on the attached plan. Any works which are materially different from those described or which relate to other listed buildings may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.

4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 26H(5)(a) of the Act, which states that the lawfulness of works for which a certificate is issued are to be conclusively presumed to be lawful provided that they are carried out within 10 years beginning with the date of the issue of the certificate.
