Description of development: Single storey rear extension following demolition of existing detached structure in rear garden

The North Hertfordshire District Council, in pursuance of their powers under the above-mentioned Act and the associated Orders and Regulations, hereby CERTIFY that on the date of receipt of the application the matter described above in respect of the aforementioned land and edged in red on the plan would have been lawful within the meaning of Section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).

The reason for this determination is as follows :-

A Certificate of Lawfulness (proposed) can be issued on the basis that the proposed single storey rear extension constitutes permitted development by virtue of Class A, Part 1 of Schedule 2 of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 as amended and that the same proposed extension has the benefit of a Prior Approval Not Required for a Larger Home Extension as confirmed by the Local Planning Authority under ref: 25/01699/NCS

NOTES

1. The certificate is issued solely for the purpose of Section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
2. It certifies that the matter specified taking place on the land described would have been lawful, on the specified date and, thus, would not have been liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.
3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the matter described and to the land specified and identified on the attached plan. Any matter which is/are materially different from that/those described or which relate(s) to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.
4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
