

William Swain was the owner of Spindle Cottage in 1816 - and its location is established from the 1816 Ippollitts Tithe Map and Award

In 1816, the owner of the cottage (which became known as Spindle Cottage) in Ippollitts parish was William Swain. This is established by consulting the 1816 Map and Award of Ippollitts, Herts.

The parish boundary ran down the centre of the Hitchin Road and along the centre of Chequers Lane, as shown by the dotted line on the map. The full identity of the owner of property 457 was disclosed in the award as William Swain.

Note that the barn associated with Spindle Cottage was standing in 1816.
