Description

Please describe details of the proposed development or works including any change of use

The proposed development relates to the change of use of the existing residential property at 3 Larkin Place from Class C3(b) (use as a dwellinghouse by up to three residents living together as a single household and receiving care) to Class C2 (residential institution).

The property currently benefits from a lawful Class C3(b) use. This application seeks to regularise and support the operational model of a children's home, including the use of shift-working staff, which is more appropriately aligned with a Class C2 use.

The proposal is for the property to accommodate up to three young people within a supportive and therapeutic residential setting, with care staff present on a 24-hour basis. Whilst the level of care provision will increase in operational terms, the scale and nature of the use will remain small and domestic in character, comparable to that of a family dwelling.

The proposals include the conversion of the existing garage into an office to support the day-to-day administration of the home. No other extensions or significant structural changes are proposed, and the property is otherwise already suitable for the intended use.

Has the work or change of use already started?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Existing Use

Please describe the current use of the site

The site comprises an existing residential dwelling which benefits from a lawful and extant Class C3(b) use, permitting occupation by up to three individuals living together as a single household with the provision of care.

Whilst the property is not currently occupied under this use, the lawful C3(b) use remains fully implementable at any time without the need for further consent. As such, the fallback position of a care-based residential use is firmly established.

This lawful use would operate in a domestic manner, with residents sharing communal living spaces and receiving appropriate care, and would be consistent with the character of the surrounding residential area.

Is the site currently vacant?

- ☒ Yes
- ☐ No

If Yes, please describe the last use of the site

The property was last used as a private residential dwelling. The site has not yet been brought into use under its lawful Class C3(b) use; however, that use remains extant and capable of being implemented at any time.

The previous use of the site was therefore wholly residential in nature, consistent with the character of the surrounding area.

When did this use end (if known)?

09/03/2026

Supporting information requirements

Where a development proposal is likely to affect features of biodiversity or geological conservation interest, you will need to submit, with the application, sufficient information and assessments to allow the local planning authority to determine the proposal.

Failure to submit all information required will result in your application being deemed invalid. It will not be considered valid until all information required by the local planning authority has been submitted.

Your local planning authority will be able to advise on the content of any assessments that may be required.

Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 \(as amended\)) would apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply: Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold) What best describes the size of your site?: Under 25 square metres Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply: EXEMPTION: Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold) REASON FOR SELECTING

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.
