YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

We live opposite the Old School House on Fish Hill. We have several windows looking over the School House and consider that the raised roof may block some of our light later in the day, particularly to our kitchen. It is also a conservation area and so much of the traditional skyline has now been destroyed. The outlook from our landing windows has completely changed, over the years. We were particularly disappointed with the alterations to the former Woolworth buildings. It would be a further disappointment if the Old School House was to become another building looking out of place and certainly not in keeping with conservation.
