Good morning Mark,

Thank you for the attached, which I have added to the file.

Could you please confirm that the following is acceptable and that it covers the works being carried out: Single storey side extension to existing detached garden room to facilitate conversion into ancillary annexe following demolition of existing detached shed.

Kind regards,

North
Herts
Council

Afternoon Allison,

I have been asked by the applicants of this application to assist them with the submission. Further to your letter dated the 2nd July, please find attached the additional information to allow you to register the application. If there is any additional information required, please come back to me. The applicants would like me to act as their agent on the application. I also note in your letter that you are to confirm the description. Once you have digested the additional information, please email me back for confirmation on the description to be registered.

Kind regards

Mark Scott
