

|                         |                                 |                                                                 |                                                                                                                   |                                                           |                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Client -Graham Reed | Scale - 1:50, A4                | Drawing -Proposed Ground floor corner/baywindow.WG1 | Notes -Hardwood timber window, constructedwith mortice and tenon joints. Paintedwhite, Double glazed. | Unit C3-5, Stondon Manor Farm,Upper Stondon, SG166LJ. | WAGTAILJOINERY  |
|                         | Project group-Architectural |                                                                 |                                                                                                                   |                                                           |                                                                                                          |