Supporting information requirements

Where a development proposal is likely to affect features of biodiversity or geological conservation interest, you will need to submit, with the application, sufficient information and assessments to allow the local planning authority to determine the proposal.

Failure to submit all information required will result in your application being deemed invalid. It will not be considered valid until all information required by the local planning authority has been submitted.

Your local planning authority will be able to advise on the content of any assessments that may be required.

Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why they are exempt from doing so.

Find out more about biodiversity net gain, and access digital tools from our partners that can help determine if you are exempt, or produce the biodiversity metric information required.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)) would apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Please add all the exemptions or transitional arrangements that apply and provide a reason why

Exemption:

Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)

Reason for selecting exemption:

Due to all habitats being classed as retained within the Biodiversity Metric, the Proposed Development is exempt from BNG through the 'de minimis' exemption as the habitats within the cable route will not be degraded in such a way (e.g. a change in habitat type, extent, or condition) that there is a decrease in the biodiversity value as determined by the statutory biodiversity metric, and so not impacted, as defined by the Biodiversity Net Gain Planning Practice Guidance. See submitted Ecological Assessment for further details.

Note: Please read the help text for further information on the exemptions available and when they apply
