Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

The proposal involves the extension and conversion of the existing garden room to create a self-contained, habitable living space suitable for occupation by two adults. The completed accommodation will comprise a living room, bedroom, kitchen, and shower room with WC, all formed within a single-storey structure measuring approximately 25 ft (7.6 m) in length and 16 ft (4.9 m) in width and 9.2 ft (2.8m) in height.

The works will include:

Conversion of existing structure — Upgrading the current garden room to meet the standards required for habitable accommodation, including insulation, damp-proofing, ventilation, heating, and fire safety measures in accordance with current Building Regulations.

Extension works — Any required enlargement or structural alteration to achieve the final internal layout and usable floor area.

New internal layout — Formation of partition walls to create a shower room, WC, and kitchen area, along with associated finishes and fixtures.

New mains services installation — Provision of new connections for cold water supply, hot water system, electrical installation, and heating, all designed and installed to current standards.

New foul and surface water drainage — Installation of appropriate waste and soil pipework to serve the WC, shower, and kitchen, with connection to the existing property's drainage system or an approved alternative.

Thermal and structural upgrades — Enhancements to walls, floor, and roof to ensure compliance with Part L (Conservation of Fuel and Power) and Part A (Structure).

Fire safety compliance — Inclusion of smoke detection, safe escape routes, and any required fire-resistant construction elements.

All works will be carried out to comply with the relevant sections of the UK Building Regulations, including Parts A, B, E, F, G, H, L, P, and any others applicable to the final design.

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Pre-application Advice

Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

(a) a member of staff

(b) an elected member

(c) related to a member of staff

(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

E.g. All the land is owned by a single individual

☒ Yes

☐ No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
