

Manufactured from Accoya timber
 using traditional Mortise and tenon techniques.
 Glazed with 16mm Heritage slim double glazing.
 Painted ral 9016 Traffic White.
 Fitted with Black 'Monkey Tail' window stays and fasteners.

WG7
 WG8

14 The Green
 Kimpton
 Herts
 SG4 8RZ

|                          |                                                         |                                    |                                                                           |                                                           |                                                                                                       |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Client -Emma Niklaus | Scale - 1:20, A4Project group-Architectural | Drawing - Proposed casement window | Notes -Manufactured from Accoya timber,Spray painted white satin. | Unit C3-5, Stondon Manor Farm,Upper Stondon, SG166LJ. | WAGTAIL JOINERY  |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|